We at David & Goliath(DG) Warriors know that our players are all individuals, with interests outside of volleyball. While we try to accommodate each player as an individual, our obligation is to the whole team. We need to ensure that each team has enough players to practice and attend tournaments. In order to accomplish this goal, we need detailed information regarding any potential scheduling conflicts with our players. If you do not have a detailed schedule yet, please list the general information below and forward a detailed schedule to us at the earliest possible date.

Please list any sports or activities that you will be participating in outside of David & Goliath(DG) Warriors.
